

Question 25:

Recently we heard a rumor that this procurement has been cancelled or was under consideration for cancellation. Is this true? If so, could you provide the rationale for this action? If this is not true, could you please provide a status of the evaluation of offers?

Answer: The answer to the answer to the first question is no. Proposals received in response to the the Radioactive Waste Treatment and Bulk Survey for Release solicitation, DE-RP30-09CC00046, are currently under evaluation. Details of the status of evaluation of proposals is source selection sensitive information (See FAR 2.101 and 3.104) and is not releasable. The current schedule for the procurement is available at the DOE Acquisition Forecast <http://hqlnc.doe.gov/Forecast>, Opportunity ID DE030-09-0004. The current forecast for contract award is 2nd Quarter 2010.
